SUMMARY

Hi, I'm Juan, versatile Game Designer with experience creating, prototyping, and documenting core gameplay mechanics and UI/UX systems in Unreal Engine 5, Unity and Godot.

With a proven track record in designing core loops, procedural level progression and dynamic gameplay mechanics for published Steam and indie projects. I also am experienced in translating abstract concepts into clear Game Design Documents (GDD) and collaborating closely with programmers and artists to turn the designed elements into engaging player experiences.

EXPERIENCE

Mochuelo Games | Game Designer Remote
Game: Unreleased Tower Defense Game September 2025 - Present

- Co-designed core mechanics, game architecture and high-level concept systems from scratch.
- Conducted core loop balancing and feature scope assessments to ensure project feasibility.
- Authored GDDs and pitch documentation detailing the project.

Bola 13 Studios | Game Designer & UI/UX Designer Madrid, Spain | On-site
Game: "Dorothy's Job" January 2025 - February 2026

- Designed and iterated core gameplay loops, focusing on the synergy between combat dynamics and cleaning-based mechanics.
- Developed and balanced a gameplay progression system linked to a 10-stage procedural level generation.
- Created four dynamic and distinct weapon systems (melee and ranged) as well as consumable items and a room reward system built around a countdown mechanic.
- Authored GDDs in Notion and created user-friendly UI/UX & HUD using Procreate and Illustrator.

Kumiho Esports | Game Designer & UI Designer | 2D Artist Madrid, Spain | On-Site
Games: "Nexus Legends" & "Nine Tails" June 2024 - September 2024

- Planned and documented full game concept, core gameplay mechanics and game loop for an early concept of "Nine Tails". Conducted a scope study for the whole project.
- Designed, created and implemented full UI/UX systems and HUD layouts for an educational trivia game called "Nexus Legends", considering gameplay usability.

Freelance Game Designer | Itch.io Profile 2023 - Present

- Took part in Different Game Jams as a Game Designer.
- Prototyped game mechanics in Unreal Engine 5 and Unity, defined core interactive loops and built narrative branching structures from scratch.
- Studied and designed an educational game project focused on preparing people for crisis management situations.
